PSA CLINCHES THREE ACCOLADES AT THE 2025 ASIAN FREIGHT, LOGISTICS & SUPPLY CHAIN AWARDS

PSA International Pte Ltd ("PSA"), a leading global port operator, was honoured with the "Best Global Container Terminal Operator" award at the 2025 Asian Freight, Logistics and Supply Chain (AFLAS) Awards, held at the Renaissance Harbour View Hotel in Hong Kong. Winning this award for the seventh time reaffirms PSA's commitment to excellence in global port operations.

Additionally, PSA Singapore was awarded "Best Green Container Terminal" for the second time, while PSA Antwerp in Belgium received the "Best Container Terminal – Europe" award for the seventh time.

Mr Ong Kim Pong, Group CEO of PSA International, said, "We are deeply honoured to receive this industry recognition, which reflects the collective efforts of our staff, unions and management in driving operational and service excellence across our global ports and supply chain network towards being agile, resilient and future-ready. I am especially grateful for the dedication and resilience of our teams worldwide, who continue to demonstrate pride and perseverance amid ongoing trade volatility and disruptions. We also value the unwavering support and trust of our customers, partners, and stakeholders, whose collaboration remains vital in ensuring the smooth flow of global trade. This affirmation further strengthens PSA's resolve to shape world-class port ecosystems – anchored in neutrality, capability and connectivity, and powered by innovation and sustainability."

Organised annually by Asia Cargo News, the AFLAS Awards recognises service providers in the supply chain industry who uphold high standards of professionalism to drive outstanding performance.
