

More connections for Colombia

Puerto Aguadulce handles its 1 millionth container

- Puerto Aguadulce received the container that marks the 1 millionth TEUs that has arrived at the port terminal

Buenaventura, January 8, 2021.- Sociedad Puerto Industrial Aguadulce began operations in 2016 and has now received its 1 millionth container in the port of Buenaventura, Valle del Cauca. This is an important milestone for the organization testifying to the growing options and opportunities in foreign trade for the country of Colombia.

"This is another great news that we can share with the country. The one millionth container represents our efforts to generate social and economic development in Buenaventura. The special characteristics of our terminal and the highly trained and dedicated staff make it possible to generate more options and connections, as well as attract more investments and opportunities for the country," says Miguel Abisambra, Aguadulce General Manager.

Since its beginnings, Puerto Aguadulce has become one of the ports with the highest levels of operational productivity and efficiency in the country. It has a capacity of 600,000 TEUs (Twenty-foot Equivalent Units) in its first phase, ensuring excellence in all port services provided to customers.

"Despite the adversities of 2020 for the global economy, we started the new year with this positive news which re-affirms our efforts and our drive towards providing a great gateway for cargoes in the Colombian Pacific region," Abisambra confirms.

About Sociedad Industrial Puerto Aguadulce

Puerto Aguadulce is a latest generation container terminal, which started operations in November 2016, achieving high international standards of productivity and security in all its operations. Its main shareholders are two of the world's most recognized major port operators: International Container Terminal Services, Inc. (ICTSI) of the Philippines and PSA International of Singapore.

**Note to Editors: PSA dropped the name of "Port of Singapore Authority" in 1997 when it became a corporatised entity. The company should be referred to as "PSA International Pte Ltd" or "PSA".*
